G A Z E T T E.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

By the Captain SPARKS, and OSBORNE, arrived here from LONDON, we have the following Advices, viz.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 3.

A LETTER from the Grand Vizir to his Brother Osman Bey, a Member of the Divan, is handed about here, and contains, that the Ottoman Empire is at present in so critical a Situation, that it is absolutely necessary he should make it known not only to the Musti, but to all the Members of the Divan, in order to induce them to inspire the Grand Signor with pacific Sentiments, and to engage him to use his Endeavours to come to an Accommodation with the Enemy. Time will shew what Credit is to be given to this Letter.

Mabon, July 27. On the 21st and 22d Instant, his Danish Majesty's Fleet, consisting of four Ships of the Line, two Frigates, two Bombs, two armed Store-ships, and a Packet, commanded by Admiral Kaas, arrived in this Port from Algiers, after having bombarded that Place. The Dey informed the Admiral, if he would depart with his Fleet he would make Peace upon reasonable Terms, and accordingly the English and French Consuls have undertaken the Negotiation. The farther Operations of this Fleet depend upon those Gentlemen's Deliberations.

Lower Podolia, July 5. The Turkish manœuvres are so altered for the better, that we hardly know them again, for now they observe both Order and Art. They take the most happy Precautions to deceive the Russians, both as to their March and their Force, which General Panin has lately experienced. This General had drawn a Line of Troops to guard his Magazines, and to conceal his March towards Bender, where he expected to surprize a Body of 4000 Tartars; but it seems this Body of Men were shewn him by way of Allurement, for he found himself surprized by three numerous Bodies of Turks and Tartars, who penetrated through his Line, by which his Cavalry was much hurt, and Part of his Artillery taken, with the Officer that commanded it. They took a great Number of Cossacks Prisoners, which are the only People to whom the Turks give Quarter in the Day of Battle, for they massacre all others whom they think allied to the Russians.

Genoa, July 28. Letters from Marfeilles advise, that the French Squadron, which has been before Tunis, has destroyed Biserta, and taken the Island of Tabarca.

Stockholm, July 27. It is strongly reported that our Consul at Cadix has sent Advice to Court, that the Emperor of Morocco has resolved to declare War against Sweden, unless prevented by Presents.

Bastia, July 20. The Count de Marbœuf is still at St. Antonio, and has burnt a Village in the Neighbourhood, for harbouring and supplying the Malecontents with Provisions. Eight of the Inhabitants, it is said, have been hanged; and seven others, with a Woman, are taken, who will probably meet the same Fate.

Paris, August 13. We are informed by private Letters from Corsica, that a considerable Body of the Natives are still in Possession of a Part of the Island, and refuse to submit to the French Government. A Priest is said to be at the Head of them.

Sienna, July 21. General Paoli has wrote to his Banker here, that he shall return immediately to Italv. They are making such Preparations in all the Ports of Spain, as if they were at the Eve of a War. The King of Spain sent two Men of War to meet the Flota lately returned from America, which is much more richly laden this Year than usual.

Constantinople, July 3. Moldavangi Ali Pacha, late Grand Vizir, has, it is said, received Orders to go to the Dardanelles with 15,000 Men, to defend the Castles there, in case the Russians should make any Attempts; or to sink their Ships, if they should endeavour to pass those Streights.

Copenhagen, July 28. The Russian Squadron, which arrived here eight Days ago, is composed of no more than three Ships of War, two of which mount 64, and the other 56 Guns, and 14 English Transport Ships, from 200 to 400 Tons Burthen, the largest of which mount 14, and the others 6 Guns each. They are hiring two Danish Ships for the same Purpose. These Ships have on board a vast Quantity of Ammunition and warlike Stores, and 2500 Foot Soldiers. They carry about 3000 Sailors, Russians and English, independent of 400 Sailors hired here, and 20 English Pilots, which they took on board at Elsinour. They will stay here about 15 Days.

Dantzick, August 8. A Courier is arrived here, who came directly from the Russian Army, and brings Advice of a complete Victory which the Russians have gained over the Tartars; and that the latter have lost 80,000 Men. We expect the Particulars, and a Confirmation of this Battle.

Venice, August 8. Letters from Corfu, of July 26, make no Mention of a decisive Combat between the Russian and Ottoman Squadrons; they only say, that those Fleets had been so near to each other three Times, that a reciprocal Cannonading had passed between them; and that the Turks having suffered greatly, took Advantage of a favourable Wind to retire towards the Dardanelles.

Letters from Zante confirm the above Advices, and add, that one Part of the Russian Ships was in Pursuit of the Turkish Fleet, and the other actually besieging Napolia de Romania.

Genoa, July 28. They have reinforced the Troops on the Frontiers of Portugal, but we do not know the Court's Reason for it. We have Advice, that his Most Faithful Majesty has ordered a profound Silence to be observed in regard to the Attempt against his Person in the Beginning of this Year.

Vienna, August 8. Letters from Constantinople mention a grand naval Engagement between the Turkish and Russian Fleets, off the Island of Scio. This News was sent to Constantinople by Moldavangi Ali Pacha, who commands a Corps of Troops to cover the Dardanelles. Both Squadrons fought very obstinately; and there was great Loss on each Side. The two Admirals, it seems, were closely engaged a long Time, and at length both Ships blew up. After this memorable Action, the Turkish Fleet is said to have retired to Tenedos; and as the Letters from Constantinople make no Mention of the Firing of Cannon, or any other Rejoicings, it is supposed the Russians were the Conquerors.

Ancona, July 29. We have a strong Report here of an Affair that has happened, near the Isle of Zante, between three Russian Men of War, and the same Number of Venetians, commanded by Admiral Angelo Emo. The latter is said to have demanded the Respect due in those Seas, which the largest Russian Ship answered by a Discharge of all her Artillery, and in Return received a Broadside from the Venetians, which sunk her to the Bottom.

Warsaw, August 12. Letters from the Army advise, that a Body of Turkish Cavalry, who were endeavouring to retreat after the Battle of the 18th ult. was cut to Pieces by the Russians.

August 15. The Day before Yesterday we received Advice by an Ekafet from Leopold, that a Courier was arrived there from the Army of the Count de Romanzow, with the very important News that the Grand Vizir having passed the Danube the First of this Month, and directed his March towards the Mouth of the Pruth, where he posted himself, between the Villages of Kalhout and Jaspouk, with 150,000 Men, was attacked there by the Russians, and totally routed. When the Courier set out, the Russians had taken 5000 Prisoners, among whom are 4 Pachas; they have also taken the Enemy's whole Camp, containing 150 Pieces of Cannon, 7000 Waggon, 40 Standards, &c. The Grand Vizir has repassed the Danube with his fugitive Army, on the Bridge of Iaccia, which he caused to be broke down immediately, to avoid a Pursuit.

Hague, August 28. Prince Gallitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from her Imperial Majesty of all the Russias, has this Day received, at one o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Courier, who brought him a Confirmation of the Victory gained by General Count de Romanzow's Army the first of this Month, over the Ottoman Army, consisting of 150,000 Men, commanded by the Grand Vizir in Person.

The Count de Romanzow having received Advice, that the Grand Vizir had passed the Danube over the Bridge of Iaccia, the 27th of last Month, at the Head of 150,000 Men, with an Intent to give him Battle, resolved to meet him, and detached towards the Danube the Prince de Repnin with a Body of 18,000 Men, who encamped on the Heights between the Danube and the little River Cabul; the Turks gave into the Snare, and imagining there was only that Corps to engage with, fell boldly upon it; mean while the Count de Romanzow put his Army in Motion through the Plains, in order to take the Turks in Flank, whilst the Prince de Repnin should attack them in Front; this succeeded so well to the Advantage of the Russians, that the Turks, finding themselves between two Fires, fled, and repassed the Danube in Disorder, over the Bridge Iaccia; it is even said, that the Grand Vizir, apprehensive of a Pursuit, had sacrificed Part of his Army to save the other, by breaking down the Bridge of Iaccia before the shattered Remains of his Army could pass over it: This glorious Day has cost the Russians 1200 Men, among whom are 18 Officers killed, and 15 wounded.

The Loss of the Turks must be very great, since on the Departure of the Courier they reckoned already 3000 left on the Field of Battle, four Pachas, and 6000 Men taken Prisoners; besides 143 Pieces of Cannon, 40 Standards and Colours, the whole of the Enemy's Camp, with all their Provisions and Ammunitions, and 7000 Waggon. The Russians are now Masters of the Borders of the Danube, and have put a Garrison in the Castle, situated at the Head of the great Bridge, on this Side of that River.

Ratisbon, Aug. 17. Letters from Poland bring us very afflicting Accounts. It is but too true, that the Distemper of which so many have died in Podolia and Volhinia, and which was at first taken for a malignant Fever, is really the Plague, and that the Contagion has spread into Transylvania, and even into Cronstadt.

Altona, Aug. 24. The Letters received from Copenhagen assure us, that some Days ago, a Design was discovered of setting the Palace on Fire, by Means of a Parcel of Combustibles placed at some Distance, and which was to have been lighted by a Match, but by great good Luck it did not take Fire, the Match being too far spent. They have not been able to discover either the Authors of this enormous Crime, or how these Combustibles were placed there; in the mean Time they are sent to the King just as they were found.

L O N D O N.

August 18. We do not hear that it is yet determined to whom to give the Seals. The general Opinion however is, that Lord C. must have them again, as the Administration cannot agree on any proper Person of their Party, Mr. De G. excepted; and this Gentleman has absolutely declined accepting them, on Account of his being so severely, and almost continually, afflicted with the Gout.

We hear from Turin, that a Rupture is likely to break out speedily between that Court and the Republic of Genoa; and it is upon that Account, it is said, that Propositions have been made by the Senate to the Court of Great-Britain.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from New-York, brought by the Halifax Packet Boat, Captain Boulderson.

It is not doubted, but that the total Route of the Turkish Army near Pruth, will be very soon followed by the taking of Bender, which that Army was posted to cover. The Fortifications of that City are entirely of the old Construction, and would not secure the Place a Week against Attacks conducted by able Engineers.

Some Persons have affected to disbelieve the Accounts of the late Victories of the Russians over the Turks; though not only the Russian Minister, but others, have Letters, with a general Relation of the Affair, sent from the Camp itself.

August 21. Letters from Madrid advise, that the King of Spain has given Orders to equip with all possible Expedition, a very formidable Squadron in the Mediterranean, which is to be employed against the Emperor of Morocco, who has threatened to besiege Ceuta and Oran in Africa, belonging to Spain.

All the Regiments of Horse, Foot, and Dragoons, being now arrived at their respective Quarters for the Remainder of this Year, Orders are given to the commanding Officers of those Regiments, that have not got their full complements of Men, to complete them forthwith.

The Grand Signor, alarmed at the Progress of the Russian Arms, is taking every Precaution possible for the Defence of Constantinople. The late Grand Vizir Moldavangi Pacha has been restored, in order to take upon him the Government of the Dardanelles, which are the chief Security of that Capital. He is to command an Army of 15,000 Men, furnished with heavy Artillery, in order to frustrate any Attempt the Russians may make against those important Castles, and to sink the Russian Ships that may endeavour to pass them. On the contrary, it is said, that Admiral Elphinstone, having accomplished the Destruction of the Turkish Fleet, has now in View the grand Project of combating the Enemy under the Walls of Constantinople, and for the Execution of this Enterprize, intends to force the Passage of the Dardanelles at all Hazards.

A Vessel arrived at Portsmouth brings Advice, that the Russian Fleet, consisting of five Ships of the Line, some Frigates, and 18 Transports, sailed out of the Sound about 12 Days ago, and were steering for the Humber.

We hear, that a Person of very high Rank, who has exposed himself to public Censure, is to go abroad till Oblivion has worn out the Attention now paid to his Errors of Conduct. The increasing Disgust of the Populace, by constant droll Representations and Allusions to what has passed, seems to render this necessary, in order to support the Respect due to the Family.

We learn from Holland, that the Russian Loan frequently mentioned to be negotiating there, is not hitherto completed.

There is great Reason to hope that the Successes of the Russian Arms against the Turks will be beneficial to Great-Britain in more Ways than one;---by lowering the French in the Eyes of the whole World, from the Disappointment of their precarious and chimerical Projects; by attaching the Russians to us, as the natural Enemy and Rival of their Foe;---and by raising such a Repentment in the Government, and such an Aversion of the People in the Ottoman State, as will dispose them to take away those monopolizing Advantages which the French have lately had in their Trade, to the almost total Exclusion of our former Share of it.

August 22. The last Defeat of the Turks upon the River Largo is beyond the Reach even of the most scrupulous Doubt. The Russian Ambassador at his Britannic Majesty's Court, we can, from the most respectable Authority, assert, has even received from his own Court the Account brought to the Empress, by the Aid de Camp General of Count Romanzow, and the Particulars of this very important Event are soon expected. In the mean Time it is thought, the Difficulty the Turks will find in transporting a respectable Body of their Troops over the Danube, will be the least Consequence of this Action. Bender and Oczakow must be left to their own Fate.

The Account inserted in the public Papers, that Hyder Alli had broke the Treaty with the English is not in the least true. It is sufficient, in order to confute it, to observe that the Letter is dated from Paris. That Prince, instead of breaking his Faith, appears, by the latest Intelligence from India, to have behaved with great Honour when solicited to do otherwise, as mentioned some Days ago in this Paper.

The Paoli, Hall, from Boston, is arrived off Haffings.

We hear from Bristol, that four large Ships, Privateers in the last War, have lately been purchased there by some foreign Agents, intended to be fitted out to cruise against the Turks with Russian Commissions.

There are Letters from Cadiz by the Pomona Man of War, Capt. Davis, which arrived at Spithead last Saturday, which give an Account, that the Spaniards are very busy in every Port of Spain, augmenting their naval Force; but the Letters pretend that it is only designed to be sent against the Piratical States, who have lately robbed and plundered many Spanish Vessels, and carried most of their Crews into Slavery, leaving on board each Ship only Hands enough to navigate the Vessels into Port.

August 23. It is asserted, that great Changes in Administration may soon be expected, either a voluntary Resignation, or a Dismission, being certainly to take Place; Difficulties accumulate upon their Hands, and nothing but an experienced Premier, or the Privy Council, it is said, can extricate them.

It is rumoured that, during a late private Negotiation, a considerable Post was offered to three different Persons, who all thought fit to decline the Acceptance.

Yesterday Letters were received from Gibraltar, which were brought by the Charming Nancy, Captain Stock, who arrived last Monday at Sandwich. They give an Account, that the Fortifications of that Place are put into proper Repair, as is the careening Wharff, Pits, &c. that the Garrison is very healthy, but that Provisions of all Kinds are very dear, occasioned by all Communication being cut off between that Place and the Algerines.

Yesterday after breaking up of the Levée at St. James's, General Monckton had the Honour of a Conference with his Majesty.

It is asserted, that Sir William Draper, Knight of the Bath, will shortly be appointed Commander in Chief of the British Forces in North-America, in the Room of General Gage.

The Orders sent to our Minister at Spain to enquire into the Cause of the naval Armaments, are founded in good Policy:---Perhaps it might not be amiss to send similar Orders to Paris.

Yesterday Bills were stuck up about the Royal Exchange, and other Parts of this City, offering Encouragement to Sailors who will enter on board several Men of War (Names therein mentioned, 15 in Number) now lying at Portsmouth and Plymouth.

Letters from Berlin advise, that the King of Prussia is set out for the Imperial Camp in Moravia, where he is to meet the Emperor of Germany, the King of Denmark, the Duke of Gloucester, the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and other illustrious Personages.

It is said, that Orders are sent to Ireland for three Regiments to be in Readiness to embark for North-America, on the first Notice.

The Account said in the public Papers to have been received at Gibraltar of the Russian Fleet having passed the Dardanelles in their Way to Constantinople, is premature; for the Plague being in that City and Neighbourhood, it is determined, as is well known to some here, to defer that Attempt till the cooler Season has stopped the Propagation of that Disease, which, if received into the Fleet, might be fatal to the Expedition. In the mean Time, there is sufficient Work for the Forces in the Islands and Coasts of the Archipelago.

[For List of Letters, and new Advertisements, see the Fourth Page.]

We hear it is now fixed, that the Earl of Rochford is to succeed Lord Townshend as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and also (in order to appease the People, who are generally displeased at the late unpopular Step of proroguing the Parliament) that the Parliament shall sit the ensuing Winter, and the Session be opened with a most gracious and congratulatory Speech from the new Viceroy.

The Ships now fitting out, and the Sailors invited to enter as Volunteers on board the Royal Navy, are, as we are informed, intended as a Fleet of Observation.

The New-York Merchants are now shipping off large Quantities of all Sorts of British Manufactures, in Consequence of Orders received by the last Packet; so that the Reports published in many of the Newspapers, that such Orders were countermanded, are without Foundation.

The like Credit is to be given to the Reports spread by the Bears in Change-Alley, of great Armaments making in the Ports of France and Spain, and of Fleets fitting out at Portsmouth and Plymouth, which are equally untrue. It is hoped, therefore, that the Proprietors of the Funds will not suffer themselves to be deceived by such false and repeated Impositions.

Some Letters from Genoa mention a Report prevailing there, that the Senate are actually upon the Point of coming to an open Rupture with France; the Bone of Contention being some Disputes relative to the total Sale of Corsica.

Extract of a Letter from Cadix, July 28.

"According to Letters from Gibraltar, of the 21st of this Month, an English Vessel was arrived there from Algiers, which Place it left on the 14th, and brings an Account, that the Bombardment of that City, by the Danish Squadron, continued Night and Day from the 5th to the 10th in the Evening, and was then suspended till the Day after, on Account of the bad Weather. The English Captain assures, that till then the Place had done no Sort of Damage to the Danish Squadron."

By the Circumstance of the Surgeons now abroad, and on the Half-pay List, being recalled, it looks as if bloody Work may soon be expected.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 18.

On Monday the 15th Instant, about One o'Clock in the Morning, departed this Life, universally lamented throughout this Colony, his Excellency the Right Honourable NORBORN BARON de BOTETOURT, his Majesty's Lieutenant, Governor General, and Commander in Chief of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, and Vice Admiral of the same.

Truly and justly to express the many great Virtues and amiable Qualities which adorned this noble Lord, as well in his public as private Character, would demand the Skill of the ablest Penman. Suffice it then to inform uch Parts of the World as were Strangers to his transcendent Merits, that Virginia, in his Fall, sorely laments the Loss of the best of Governors, and the best of Men. Let his distant Relations and Friends be told that we have all anticipated, and shall, to the latest Period, share their Grievs and deep Afflictions; and that we condole with them, with the Warmth of the most tender Affection.

By the Resignation of the Honourable JOHN BLAIR, Esq; the Government devolves upon the Honourable WILLIAM NELSON, Esq; who, we hear, intends to give such an Attendance in this City, as to carry on the public Business with the usual Dispatch.

BOSTON, October 18.

We hear the Goods which have been stored in this Town by the Committee of Inspection for some Time past, are now delivering out to their respective Owners.

We hear that the Sum of 25,000l. only is to be assessed on the Polls and rateable Estates of this Province the ensuing Year.

Yesterday Morning arrived here his Majesty's Ship Gibraltar, from Plymouth in England, in 8 Weeks.

We hear Captain Bishop was to sail from England for this Place in the Hollar, as also the Mercury Sloop.

We hear the Mermaid and Glasgow Men of War are soon expected both from Halifax.

His Majesty's Ships now in this Harbour, lying in a Range before the Town, are, Salisbury, 50 Guns, Commodore Gambier, Captain Perkins, Boston, 32, Capt. Parker, Rose, 20, Capt. Caldwell, Gibraltar, 20, Capt. Bond, Beaver, 14, Capt. J. Lindsey, Senegal, 14 Guns, Capt. Sir Thomas Rich, Hope armed Schooner, Capt. Dawson, Halifax Ditto, Capt. Glasford.

Last Sunday died at Portsmouth, advanced in Years, the Honourable Benning Wentworth, Esq; late Governor of New-Hampshire.

October 22. Friday night last began, and continued the chief part of the day following, as severe a storm as has been known these many years. The wind being variable from N. W. to N. E. swelled the tide considerably higher than it has been for 47 years past, which filled a great many cellars and stores, whereby vast quantities of sugar, salt, &c. were lost. Several roofs of houses and barns in town and country were blown down, and sundry stores in town were carried off, and removed by the current, as also vast quantities of wood, staves, shingles, &c. from the wharves. The damage sustained by the above storm will amount to many thousands, but we have not been able to collect the particulars.

We hear Capt. Dunn from Glasgow, left from Newbury, being at anchor in Nantasket road, parted from her cables, and is drove ashore upon the Flatts in Braintree-Bay; and it is said 15 or 20 other vessels, that had come to below before the storm, are cast ashore at the different islands, but it is thought most of them will be got off again.

We this moment hear, by a gentleman who was coming passenger in Capt. Ellis, from Rhode-Island, for this place, but cast away at Plymouth, that at that place between 30 and 60 sail of vessels were cast away in the above terrible storm, and 40 or 50 seamen drowned; several of which were taken up yesterday morning before our informant came away. He also informs, that near half the stores there were blown down, and carried away; but we cannot now insert the particulars.

NEWPORT, October 22.

Samuel Carey, who the week before last was tried at St. King's Court, for feloniously making and uttering counterfeit dollars, on Thursday last received sentence of death. His counsel declined any argument upon the special verdict found, and waived the motion they had made in arrest of judgment. On the same day Thomas Clark, Samuel Wilson, William Reynolds, and Eliza Reynolds, having been indicted, and severally convicted, before the same court, for making and uttering counterfeit half-joes, received the following sentences, viz. Thomas Clark, to stand in the pillory one hour, to have both ears cropped, to be branded with a hot iron on each cheek, with the letter R, to pay £100 lawful money fine, and cost of prosecution, and to stand committed till sentence performed. Samuel Wilson, to stand in the pillory, and be cropped and branded in like manner, to pay £600 fine, and cost, and stand committed till sentence performed. William Reynolds, to stand in the pillory for one hour, to have both ears cropped, to pay £200 fine, and cost, and stand committed till sentence performed. Eliza Reynolds, to stand in the pillory one hour, to be whipped 39 lashes, to pay cost, and stand committed till sentence performed. The trial of Wilson lasted ten hours, when the jury went out, and returned a verdict in less than ten minutes. Guilty.

The latter part of last Friday night, and great part of next day, we had a violent storm of wind and rain here from N. E. to N. in which the spindle of Trinity Church was broken off a little below the upper ball, but was prevented from falling to the ground, by the elastic rods with which the church is furnished; two or three stones and shingles were blown down, and several vessels were driven ashore in different parts of this harbour, but we do not hear that any vessels are lost, tho' they have received some damage. 'Tis expected many vessels are driven ashore in other parts, which were more open, and exposed to the storm. Several wind-mills on this island have suffered, and our western ferry-roads, we hear, are greatly damaged.

PHILADELPHIA, November 1.

By an authentic Copy of a Report of the Lords of Trade and Plantations, on the Petition lately exhibited by the honourable Proprietaries of Pennsylvania to his Majesty in Council, against the Colony of Connecticut, for the Intrusions made by the People of that Government on the said Proprietaries Lands on the River Sasquehanna, it appears, that the Agents of the said Colony being called before their Lordships, declared, they had no Instructions to avow the Proceedings of the Settlers upon the above Lands, as founded on any Authority from that Colony, or to set forth on Behalf of the Colony, any Claim to the said Lands.

Extract of a Letter from London, August 8, 1770.

"The late Trial of the D. of C. hath terminated much to his Dishonour. His whole Conduct in the Prosecution of that Intrigue, was not only highly unbecoming his Station, but low, pusill, and unmanly, to a great Degree. His Letters (tho' some Allowance ought to be made for them, as being the Productions of a young Man, under the Influence of one of the strongest Passions) are yet so very incorrect, and devoid of Sentiment, as to appear altogether unworthy of one, who had the Advantage of a liberal Education. But above all, his running out of the Room, when he was discovered with his Mistress, and then offering to take his Belle Oath he had not been there, will ever be remembered to his Discredit. To say the Truth, it is really shocking to find a Member of the R---l F---y, and nearly allied to our S---n, to very much underbred.

"The Fire at Portsmouth was probably the Deed of some of the worthless Workmen about the Yard, not of the French. There is not the smallest Appearance of a War with them, or with any other Power. And all you have seen in the Papers about a Change of Ministry, is absolutely without Foundation. No Application has been, nor is intended to be, made to Lord Chatham; and Lord Northington came to Town, purely because he was fired at the Country, in order to hire a House for a Town Residence. All these Paragraphs are artfully published, to mislead People at a Distance with a Notion of the Infatigability of our Councils, and are well calculated to keep up a Spirit of Discontent and Opposition."

Extract of a Letter from London, August 24, 1770.

"The New-York Merchants here, in Consequence of Orders from thence, by the last Packet, are shipping large Quantities of all Sorts of our Manufactures; those for Woollen Goods, in particular, are so extensive, that there are not enough in the Market, I am well assured, to supply them. Thus the Ice being now broke, the other Colonies must soon follow their Example."

Captain Cain, from Londonderry, on the 21st of last Month, in Lat. 39: 12, Long. 69, fell in with the Brig Peggy and Hannah, Captain Benjamin Mayo, from Surinam for Boston, who the Day before had sprang a Leak in a very hard Gale of Wind; and notwithstanding both Pumps were constantly kept going, the Water gained on them so fast, that the Vessel was then Half full, and there being no Probability of carrying her into any Port, Captain Cain took the People on board, and has brought them in with him: The Day before the Gale came on Captain Mayo spoke a Sloop from this Port for St. Christopher's.

R UN away on the 25th day of August last, from the subscriber, living in East Nantmell township, Chester county, a Mulattoe man, named Thomas Bucher, aged 35 years, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, hath short black curled hair, very large feet, his legs not equal, the one considerably thicker than the other, is pretty much marked with the small-pox; had on, and took with him, when he went away, a whitish coloured thick cloth coat, with button buttons, one under jacket, without sleeves; one fine linen shirt, one new ditto, one pair of new trousers, one pair of coarse leather shoes, with brass buckles; one new collar hat, and one buff-raven ditto. Said Mulattoe took with him a white woman, which he says is his wife, she is very remarkable, as all the fingers are cut off her right hand, and is a thick-set, chunky, impudent looking, red haired buffy, pretty much given to strong drink. Whoever takes up said Mulattoe man, and secures him in any of his Majesty's goals, shall have Eight Dollars reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN STARRETT.

N. B. It may be supposed some evil designing person both drawn him a pair.

New-Castle county, October 26, 1770.

FOUR POUNDS Reward.

ON Thursday, the 18th instant, in the evening, was feloniously taken from the subscriber, a young apprentice lad, named John Criswell, about 16 years of age, 5 feet 3 inches high, a well set fellow, red hair, full teeth before, can work at the cooper's trade; had on, when he went away, an old blue broad cloth coat, with white metal buttons, shirt and trousers, good wool hat, &c. The perpetrator of this felony is a certain Samuel Criswell, who on the same day was seen in our neighbourhood, and the said apprentice went with him, all by the persuasion of the above Samuel Criswell, father to the above named John Criswell. The aforesaid Samuel Criswell is about 5 feet 9 inches high, 46 years of age, of a fair complexion, round shouled; had on a light blue cloth coloured coat, double breasted lincey jacket, new buckskin breeches, felt hat, &c. It is likely the above Samuel Criswell will change his name, as he has done heretofore. Any person apprehending said apprentice lad, and his father, as above described, shall have the above reward, or Forty Shillings for each, if secured in any goal, so that the subscriber may have them, or if brought to New-Castle goal, Five Pounds, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN STEVENSON, junior.

R UN away from the subscriber, the 22d of September last, a Mulattoe slave, named Hannah, of a middle stature, about 17 or 18 years of age, has black short curled hair, much frizzled in the face; had on and took with her, when she went away, a black lincey jacket and petticoat, a new striped milled ditto, a blue camblet bonnet, a new shift and apron, a blue striped cotton handkerchief, and a blue stamp ditto; it is likely she may have changed her apparel, as she is blamed for stealing two fine shifts, a calicoe bed-gown, white cotton stockings, &c. Whoever takes up said slave, and brings her home to the subscriber, living at Peach Bottom Ferry, shall receive, if taken within 15 miles of home, Three Dollars, if 30 miles, Six Dollars, if 40 miles, Four Pounds, and reasonable charges, if brought home, or Thirty Shillings for securing her in any goal, besides what the law allows, paid by

NICHOLAS COOPER.

WHEREAS Ann, the wife of James Fitzsimmons, of Lower Merion, in the county of Philadelphia, did abscond from my dwelling, and left me two small children to maintain, and being suspicious that she would run me in debt; these are, therefore, to forewarn all persons from trusting her upon my account, as I will not pay any debts of her contracting, after this 25th day of October, 1770. JAMES FITZSIMMONS.

Just published, and sold by JOHN DUNLAP, at the Newf Printing-Office, in Market-street, three doors below the corner of Second-street, and opposite the upper end of the Jersey-market, Philadelphia.

THE TRIAL of his R. H. the D. of C. for criminal conversation with Lady HARRIET G-----. To which is prefixed, An introductory Discourse upon the ancient and modern punishments of adultery, and the uncommon progress of that crime. Including all the LETTERS which have passed between his Royal Highness and her Ladyship, and were read in court.

The Editor of this Trial has taken the earliest opportunity of laying it before the public, as it is the most important and remarkable one that ever came before a court of judicature; and the only one that has any similarity to it, fell out in the last century, when Robert, Earl of Southesk, charged his R. H. James duke of York (afterwards James II.) with an amour with his countess; but it was never brought into court: Nor is there, perhaps, any precedent in any country of a like process; and though no more than 10,000l. damages were granted, it evidently demonstrates the integrity and upright sentiments of a British jury, who pay no regard to rank, title, or station, but administer justice with equal impartiality, from the first to the last subject in the land.
